THE HEAD COACHES: Huskies coach Danny Hale (West Chester '68) is in his 18th year at the helm of the Bloomsburg program. Having achieved his 150th win this season against Shippensburg, Hale has a 153-51-1 (.749) record and the most wins in school history. For his career, Hale is 193-64-1 and his winning percentage of .750 is ranked among the top 10 active coaches in Division II and top 20 D-II coaches all-time. Hale has led BU to six playoff appearances, including the latest in 2008. He has been honored as the PSAC East Coach of the Year 10 times, the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year nine times, and was named the AFCA National Coach of the Year following the 2000 season.

John Luckhardt (Purdue '68) is finishing his ninth year leading the California football program. During that time, he has recorded an overall record of 78-29, including a 46-8 ledger over the last four years. Luckhardt started his coaching career at his alma mater, where he served as a graduate assistant. From there, he coached at Northern Illinois and Lehigh. Luckhardt took his first job as Head Coach at Washington & Jefferson, where he compiled a 137-37-2 record. With a 215-67-2 (.761) overall record, he is one of the Division's winningest, both in victories and win percentage. At W&J, he also coached the Presidents' baseball team for four years, logging a 19-48-1 ledger. During two of those four years, his wife, Barbara, was the school's field hockey coach.

LAST WEEK IN THE PSAC: In the final week of the regular season, the teams of the PSAC Western Division played host to the East in the season's third cross-over week.

RECORD PASSING STREAK: Junior Pat Carey has now thrown at least two touchdown passes in each of the last ten games. No other Bloomsburg quarterback has strung together as many multiple-touchdown games. Eric Miller had seven straight games in 2000. The BU record for at least one touchdown pass in consecutive games in the regular season record is 16: by Glen McNamee for the last nine in 1994 and first seven in 1995; and Miller for the last 5 in 1999 and all 11 in 2000. Including the playoffs that season, Miller reached 20.

SCOUTING CALIFORNIA: Quarterback Josh Portis has only played two seasons but has amassed an impressive career resume nonetheless. The senior has thrown for 66 touchdowns and 6,305 yards. He is currently the conference's leader in pass efficiency. Chedrick Cherry and Terrance Moore are Portis' favorite targets. Cherry has 665 receiving yards and 11 touchdowns, while Moore has 588 yards and seven scores. On the ground, Lamont Smith has racked up 1,136 yards on the year and is the PSAC's third best rusher. Defensively, the Vulcans have dominated their opponents, breaking up 41 passes while intercepting 18. Allowing only 74 yards yards on the ground per game, California is currently fourth nationally in rushing defense.

VULCANS IN THE TOURNAMENT:
(from California Sports Information)
Making their fourth-straight playoff appearance, the Vulcans earned the third seed after boasting a 10-1 overall record and claiming a share of their sixth-consecutive PSAC West title.

California and Bloomsburg have played each other five times since 2006 with the Huskies winning three of the five meetings. However, Cal U won the only post-season meeting against Bloomsburg in 2008 with a 27-24 victory in the Super Regional One Championship.

#6 Bloomsburg 17 - #17 California 10
September 5, 2009

CALIFORNIA,PA- Quarterback Dan Latorre hit Cory Stiger with a four-yard touchdown pass with 22 seconds left to play to lift the sixth-ranked Huskies over 17th-ranked California (PA), 17-10.

After Cal had tied the game at 10-10 on an 18-yard scoring pass from Josh Portis to AJ Jackson with a minute to play, the Huskies started their game winning drive on their own 39-yard line. After Latorre's first pass fell incomplete, he scrambled for 10 yards out to the Huskies 49-yard line. Following a timeout with 36 seconds to play, the senior quarterback hit a wide-open Chris Tressler with a 47-yard bomb to the Vulcans four-yard line. On the next play, Latorre hit Stiger with a touchdown pass, Stiger's first career scoring catch, to put Bloomsburg in front 17-10.

Cal, though, wasn't done. Portis completed passes of 21 and 14 yards on consecutive plays putting the ball at the Bloomsburg 36-yard line with six seconds to play. After an incomplete pass left just one second to play, Portis' last pass was knocked down by the Huskies Mike Varanavage preserving the Bloomsburg win.

The game was a back and forth struggle between the defenses with the only scoring through the first three quarters being a field goal from Jon Koenig from 42-yards out with 12:47 to play in the second period. In the third period, Cal's Kevin Hagerman connected from 30-yards out tying the score at 3-3 heading to the fourth period.

Bloomsburg went in front 10-3 on a special teams play. A long punt from Bloomsburg was muffed by Cal's Mike Brown and recovered in the end zone by Bloomsburg's Branden Wright with 4:29 to play.

Latorre finished 12-22 for 166 yards and one score, while Ben Weaber caught five passes for 37 yards to lead the receivers. Varanavage finished with 10 tackles and the one key pass break-up, while Anthony Smith added eight tackles.

AMONG THE RANKS: Bloomsburg dropped nine spots to No. 20 in Division II according to the latest American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) poll. In both of last week's polls, the Huskies were slotted in the No. 11 position.

LEADING THE NATION: For the ninth week this season and eighth straight, Franklyn Quiteh sits atop the Division II rushing leaderboard. His average of 158.4 yards per game is now 17 yards per game more than runner-up Phil Milbrath of Michigan Tech (141.2). Across all divisions, Quiteh was the first runner to reach the 1,000-yard mark this season and has racked up the second-most yards rushing (1,742), trailing only Jim Bower (1,779) of D-III's Maine Maritime.

STIFLING THE OPPONENT: Bloomsburg has held its opponents to fewer than 20 yards on 81 of 143 (57%) of their total drives. On 31 of those drives (22% of the total), the Huskies forced a punt after only three plays.

THROWING THE BOMB: The Huskies have thrown seven passes of 50+ yardage this season. Pat Carey has connected on six touchdowns from the Bloomsburg side of midfield: 66 yards (Clarion) and 65 yards (Kutztown) to Cory Stiger; 68 yards (Indiana), 62 yards (Cheyney), and 76 yards (Mercyhurst) to Kyle Fisher; and 52 yards (Shippensburg) to Chris Tressler. On BU's other long pass, tight end Ben Weaber hurled 53 yards to Fisher on a trick play that ended on the West Chester three-yard line.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

By Bloomsburg University Archivist Bob Dunkelberger

The Huskies completed the regular season scoring a total of 426 points and averaging 38.7 points per game. This is the third highest point total ever in 113 seasons of football, behind only 1996 (458) and 2005 (427). The average was the fourth highest, behind 1996 (41.6), 2007 (39.8) and 2005 (38.8).

Every game during the season was decided by 10 or more points for only the seventh time in school history. Only two other years resulted in a winning record: 1904 (8-1) and 1950 (7-1). The four years with a losing record were 1981 (0-10), 1940 (1-6), 1919 (2-5) and 1941 (1-4).

The 56 points scored by Mercyhurst were the most surrendered by the Huskies in a single game since 63 against Delta State in the 2000 National Championship game. It was the most in a regular season game since Bloomsburg gave up 67 at Kutztown in 1991. The previous regular season high under Danny Hale had been 48 at Shippensburg in 2004.

The 93 total points in Saturday's game marked only the eighth time in school history (in 989 games) this amount has been reached. The others were 106 (58-48 over UC Davis in 2000), 100 (58-42 over East Stroudsburg in 1996), 97 in the 63-34 loss to Delta State in 2000, 96 in last week's game with Kutztown, 93 against Mercyhurst, 92 (92-0 over Northumberland High School in 1912), 91 (a 52-39 loss to East Stroudsburg in 2005), and 91 (49-42 over Ashland in 2008). The Huskies' record in the eight games is 5-3, with all except one being played since 1996.

Bloomsburg's all-time record versus California is 12-8-2 in a series that began in 1928, with a home record of 8-2-1, 4-5-1 on the road, and 0-1 at a neutral site (the 1984 state game in Hershey). Danny Hale's record with the Vulcans is 5-2, including 2-1 at Cal.

BREAKING LOOSE: Bloomsburg has recorded 24 rushes for 20 yards or more this season, eight of which ended in touchdowns. Franklyn Quiteh is responsible for all but one of these long scoring runs, as he found the endzone from 45 and 68 yards against Clarion, from 25 yards against Millersville, from 23 yards against Cheyney, from 37 yards against West Chester, from 25 yards against Kutztown and from 32 yards against Mercyhurst. Codie Butler had a 62-yard run end on the one-yard line versus Kutztown but later got a second chance and escaped downfield for a 63-yard touchdown, one of his two in that game.

EXTENDING THE RECORD: Currently the PSAC's leader in field goals per game, redshirt freshman Daniel Fisher is now in exclusive possession of the Bloomsburg single-season record for field goals completed and attempted. The previous record was set in 1986 when Chris Mingrone was successful on 10 of his 20 attempts. On October 30, Fisher also broke the BU single-game record, which stood at three entering the season. His average of 1.82 field goals per game is fourth in NCAA Division II.

Climbing the Ranks

In 2010, redshirt freshman Franklyn Quiteh has recorded the third best single-season rushing total in Bloomsburg history. The chart below shows the game-by-game rushing totals for Quiteh compared to those of the best seasons of Bloomsburg's three prior all-time leading rushers.

Last Week

#16 MERCYHURST 56 - #11 BLOOMSBURG 37
November 13, 2010

ERIE--Mercyhurst quarterback Travis Rearick threw for 345 yards and four scores to lead the Lakers to a 56-37 win over Bloomsburg in the PSAC Championship game.

Mercyhurst scored on its second possession of the game with Rearick hitting Terrence Coon with a 61-yard scoring pass to make it 7-0. Bloomsburg answered with a field goal on its ensuing possession when Daniel Fisher connected on a 26-yard field goal to cap a 61-yard drive. The big play in the drive was a 49-yard completion from Huskies quarterback Pat Carey to Cory Stiger putting the ball at the Lakers 21-yard line; however, Stiger came down hard on his shoulder when making the catch and did not return.

The Lakers extended their lead to 14-3 when Rearick hit Matt Mohr with a 28-yard scoring pass capping a 49-yard scoring drive. A key play in the drive was a defensive pass interference call on a third and 13 play that kept the drive alive for Mercyhurst.

Bloomsburg closed the gap to 14-10 later in the first taking advantage of a special team's mistake by Mercyhurst. On a BU punt, the Lakers Trevor Kennedy mishandled the ball with Dave Onorato recovering at the Mercyhurst 35-yard line. Two plays later, Franklyn Quiteh, Division II's leading rusher, scored on a 32-yard run with 1:49 to go in the first.

The home team answered back, marching 81-yards in six plays with Rearick throwing his third TD pass of the game--a four yard strike to Ryan Bartizal--making it 21-10. Later in the period, the Lakers used special teams to score when Kennedy returned a punt 78-yards for a score to make it 28-10 with 8:02 to go before halftime.

The Huskies came right back and narrowed the gap back to 11 points when Carey hit Kyle Fisher with a 36-yard scoring pass to make it 28-17 with just over three minutes left to play in the half. Mercyhurst's Rearick responded and hit Kennedy with an 81-yard scoring pass on third and eight from the Lakers' 19-yard line that sent the home team to the locker room with a 35-17 lead.

In the second half, Bloomsburg started with the ball, but Carey was intercepted by Kevin Williams who returned the ball 28 yards for a score to make it 42-17. On BU's next drive, Quiteh had to leave the game with a leg injury after a short two-yard gain and did not return.

After the teams twice traded punts, Bloomsburg made it a 42-24 game when Carey led a 50-yard scoring drive going the final five yards himself to cut the deficit for the Huskies.

Bloomsburg made it 42-30 early in the fourth period when, following a blocked punt, Carey hit Kyle Fisher with a 76-yard scoring strike with 11:02 left in the game.

On the next possession for Mercyhurst, Rearick directed a 70-yard scoring drive with Gerald Henderson scoring from one-yard out for a 49-30 lead. Bloomsburg did not quit and came back with a quick scoring driver with Carey hitting Tyler Guise with a 23-yard scoring pass cutting the margin to 49-37 with 6:24 left in the game.

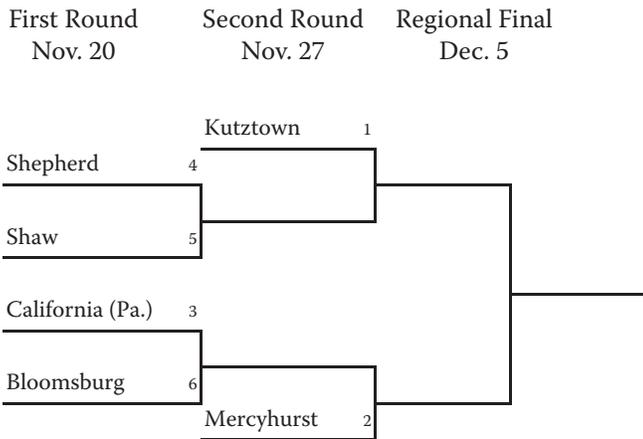

But again the Lakers answered a score with one of their own. Garrett Kensy capped the win for Mercyhurst hitting Kennedy with a 17-yard scoring pass.

For Bloomsburg, Carey was 22-37 for a career-high 311 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. Quiteh rushed 16 times for 104 yards and one score before leaving the game early in the third period, while Kyle Fisher caught six passes for 151 yards and two scores.

HEAD COACH DANNY HALE

Danny Hale, one of the winningest coaches in all of Division II, will begin his 18th season at the helm of the Huskies in 2010. Hale also spent five years as head coach at West Chester University.

Prior to West Chester, Hale was an offensive line and defensive coordinator at Colgate from 1981 to 1983. Prior to Colgate, Hale was the offensive line coach at Bucknell from 1975-80 and was defensive coordinator/linebacker coach at Vermont in 1974.

Hale is a graduate of West Chester, earning his bachelor's and master's degrees in Health and Physical Education in 1968 and 1973. He was an all-conference pick at West Chester and earned the team's most valuable player in the 1967 State Championship game, while also lettering three times for the track and field team. He is a member of the West Chester Football Hall of Fame and the Delaware County Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.
