SETTING THE SCENE...

•Bloomsburg will take part in the first-ever collegiate wrestling meet at Madison Square Garden on Sunday, Dec. 16 for the Grapple at the Garden. The Huskies will take on the University of Missouri Tigers.

• Bloomsburg is coming off a third-place finish at the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) Championships on Saturday. The Huskies crowned four champions, had three second-place finishers to go along with a fourth and fifth place finish.

• The Huskies competed with just nine wrestlers due to an injury suffered by 157-pounder Frank Hickman.

QUOATABLE FROM HEAD COACH JOHN STUTZMAN

"We wrestled well last weekend. We had seven in the finals and had four champions. Finishing third is not what we wanted, but when you give away a weigh class its hard to make up the points."

"This weekend at the Garden is obviously going to be tough. We will be without a few starters, so the challenge will be great. Missouri is a well balanced and well coached team. We look forward to being part of a great event."

FAST FACTS

• Frank Hickman has 84 career wins and needs 16 wins to become the 16th wrestler in school history to reach that mark.
• Head coach John Stutzman is third all-time in school history with 86 wins (current) and needs 14 more to become the third coach in school history to reach the 100-win mark.
• This will be the second all-time meeting between the Huskies and the Tigers. The only other meeting was in 1980-81 with Missouri winning 31-6 at Bloomsburg.

Head Coach John Stutzman

John Stutzman begins his eight season as head coach of the Bloomsburg University wrestling team in 2012-13.

Stutzman has guided the Huskies to a record of 80-53-1 in his seven seasons ranking him 3rd all-time in career wins. He has coached three NCAA Division I All-Americans, six Eastern Wrestling League (EWL) champions, 66 EWL place winners and 27 NCAA Division I national qualifiers.

Twice Stutzman has earned the EWL Coach of the Year honor as well as producing the 2007 EWL and PSAC Freshman of the Year, the 2009 EWL Championship's Outstanding Wrestler and the 2011 PSAC Freshman of the Year.

A year ago Stutzman led the Huskies to a record of 16-7 and finished 2nd at the PSAC Championships as well as 5th at the EWL Championships. The 16 wins included wins over West Virgina University, North Carolina State, and Buffalo. At the EWL championships Sutzman led the Huskies to a 5th place finish, while qualifying four wrestlers for the NCAA championships.

During the 2010-11 season Stutzman led the Huskies to a record of 14-6 and finished third at the EWL Championships. The 14 wins were the most for the program since the 1990-91 season and included wins over Penn, North Carolina State, Northern Iowa and Buffalo. At the EWL championships Stutzman led the BU to a third place finish, while qualifying two wrestlers for the NCAA championships, including EWL-champion Mike Dessino. Stutzman was honored by his fellow coaches by being named the EWL Coach of the Year.

In 2009-10 Stutzman led the Huskies to a record of 10-8, which included an appearance at the NWCA National Duals for the first time in 20 years.

Assistant Coach Danny Song

Danny Song begins his first season as an assistant for the Huskies.

Song had spent three years as the strength and conditioning coach for the University of Iowa wrestling team. During Song's tenure, Iowa has crowned four NCAA champions, 19 All-Americans, six Big Ten champions and 15 academic all-Big Ten honorees. The Hawkeyes won the 2010 NCAA and Big Ten tournament titles, while earning Big Ten regular season crowns in 2010 and 2011. Iowa also set school records for longest dual unbeaten (84) and winning streaks (69), longest dual road unbeaten (51) and winning streaks (44), most Carver-Hawkeye Arena victories (11) and most dual shutouts (8).

Song was a three-year NCAA qualifier and starter at 141 and 149 pounds for the Merchant Marine Academy from 2004-2006. He posted an 81-20 career record, placing at the 2006 Division III NCAA Championships. A native of Hauppauge, N.Y., Song earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Iowa in 2008.

Huskies Win Four PSAC Titles

Bloomsburg University took home four PSAC (Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference) titles on Saturday, Dec. 8. (The PSAC wrestling championships is a combination of the D-1 and D-2 schools which compete together in most other sports). Taking home PSAC titles were Josh Veltre (165); Chris Smith (174); Richard Perry (197) and Justin Grant (285). The PSAC title was the first for each of the wrestlers.

Most PSAC Titles Since 2000

The four PSAC titles were the most for the Huskies since the 2000 season when Bloomsburg also won four titles. In all the Huskies put seven wrestlers in the finals, the most of any team at the event. The four champions were also the most of any team competing at the PSAC championships.

Second Place Team Streak Snapped

The Huskies had a six-year streak of finishing second at the PSAC Championships snapped this year when they finished third. After winning the PSAC title in 2005, the Huskies had finished second in each of the next six years before taking third this season (Bloomsburg competed with just nine wrestlers due to an injury to Frank Hickman.)

Veltre Beats Nationally-Ranked Opponent for PSAC Tittle

Josh Veltre knocked off Edinboro's Johnny Greisheimer, ranked 16th by Intermat, 6-3 win, to earn his first PSAC title.

Justin Grant 2012 U.S. Olympic Trials Qualifier

Heavyweight Justin Grant qualified for the 2012 United States Olympics Wrestling Trials. Grant finished second in his freestyle weight class at the U.S. Olympic Qualifying Trial in Cedar Falls, Iowa. Grant reached the final at 120 kg/264.5 pounds, falling to former Division III national champion John Helgerson of Wartburg College 2-1, 1-2, 1-0.

Grant Pins Way to PSAC Title

Justin Grant won two of three matches by fall on his way to the PSAC title. Grant opened his day with a pin in just 20 seconds over his opponent from Millersville, then ended the tourney with a pin in 3:22 over his Kutztown opponent.

Perry With Four Wins to Capture Title

Richard Perry won four matches to capture his first PSAC title. Perry won his first two bouts by fall, then scored two decisions to win the championship.

Smith Wins First Title

Chris Smith, who saw time last year at 165 pounds, moved to 174 pounds this season and won his first-ever title for the Huskies taking the 174 pound PSAC championship.

On Deck for the Huskies

Bloomsburg will be back in action on Tuesday, Dec. 18 hosting the University of Buffalo at 7 p.m. at the Nelson Field House.

2012-13 HONORS AND AWARDS

EWL Wrestler of the Week
Nov. 18—Josh Roosa
Nov. 26—Mike Dessino (red-shirt)

PSAC Wrestler of the Week
Nov. 26—Frank Hickman

Bloomsburg Ranked by Wrestling Report.com

In the latest Wrestling Report.com national poll the Huskies are ranked 29th in this week's poll. Bloomsburg narrowly missed being ranked for the third straight week in the USA Today/NWCA poll. The Huskies received 100 points and missed by four points of being 25th in the rankings.

Huskies Sweep Honors on Nov. 26.

Bloomsburg University swept both the PSAC and EWL Wrestling Awards on Nov. 26. Named the PSAC Wrestler of the Week was Frank Hickman, while Mike Dessino was named the EWL Wrestler of the Week.

In Bloomsburg's sweep of three matches at the Northeast Duals in Troy, N.Y., Hickman was victorious in each of his three bouts. Hickman, ranked seventh in the country (Wrestling Report.com) in the 157 weight class, brought down his Hofstra opponent winning by a technical fall helping the Huskies to a 24-10 win. Against Princeton, Hickman scored a 14-2 major decision victory, recording a take down and a two-point near fall in each of the first two periods of his event. The Huskies defeated Princeton 31-10. Bloomsburg next took down Drexel 33-6, with Hickman winning by major decision,17-4. Hickman is 9-2 on the year, with two falls and two major decision victories.

Dessino, who is red-shirting this season, wrestled unattached in Lock Haven University's Mat Town Open in November, and easily won the crown at 174 pounds picking up three wins by fall. He won his first of three bouts by pin in just 1:06 and then won his semi-final match by fall in 1:21. In the finals, Dessino pinned Bucknell's Stephen McPeek in 3:41.

Roosa Wins EWL Wrestler of the Week in Early November

Senior Josh Roosa was named the Eastern Wrestling League (EWL) Wrestler of the Week for the period ending Nov. 18.

Roosa won the 149-lb weight class at the Keystone Classic in Philadelphia winning five matches on the day and helping the Huskies to a fourth place finish as a team.

Roosa, seeded second, won his first bout over his Harvard opponent by a tech fall (in 6:30), then, tallied a 13-5 decision over his opponent from Boston University. In the quarterfinals he scored a win by major decision, 12-3, over a wrestler from VMI. In the semi-finals he beat Dylan Marriott Northwestern, 7-3. In the championship match, Roosa faced first-seed Kevin Tao of American University, who is a nationally ranked NCAA qualifier and who placed second in the 2012 EIWA Tournament. Roosa grabbed the gold with a 5-2 victory over Tao.
