JOHNSON EARNS WIN AT PENN STATE, HUSKIES COLLECT TOP FINISHES AT OHIO OPEN

Bloomsburg faced a challenging road test against defending national champion Penn State on Nov. 12 before turning in several strong individual performances at the Bob Del Rosa Ohio Open on Nov. 14. Scotty Johnson (141) earned the Huskies' lone victory against the Nittany Lions, securing a decision in Bloomsburg's 42-3 setback to improve to 3-1 in dual competition. The Huskies followed with several podium finishes in tournament action two days later, highlighted by Coltan Jones (125), who placed third, Tim Gray (285), who finished fourth, and freshman Daniel Dacey (165), who took fifth. Dacey recorded three victories at the tournament, including a technical fall and a pin. Bloomsburg enters the weekend with a 2-2 dual-meet record, with Friday's matchup at Navy and Sunday's C.J. Morgan Invitational at Army next on the schedule.

BLOOMSBURG HUSKIES

THE MATCH
Bloomsburg continues its early-season road schedule with a trip to Annapolis, Md., to face Navy on Friday, Nov. 20, at 6:30 p.m. before traveling to West Point, N.Y., for the inaugural C.J. Morgan Invitational on Sunday, Nov. 22. Tournament action begins at 10 a.m. at Christl Arena.

The Huskies enter the weekend 2-2 overall following a 42-3 loss to defending national champion Penn State on Nov. 12. Bloomsburg opened the season with a 32-7 loss at Wisconsin, then swept Sacred Heart, 45-0, and Duke, 41-0, at the Journeymen Duals on Nov. 7.

Navy also enters Friday's matchup at 2-2, having defeated Duke and Maryland but fallen to nationally ranked Rutgers and NC State. Sunday's tournament will feature Army, Bloomsburg, Columbia, Hofstra, Penn State and VMI.

LAST TIME OUT — JOHNSON DELIVERS AT PENN STATE
Scotty Johnson provided Bloomsburg's lone victory against Penn State on Nov. 12, earning a decision at 141 pounds in the Huskies' 42-3 loss to the Nittany Lions. Johnson improved to 3-1 in dual competition and continued his strong start to the 2026-27 season.

Penn State won nine of the 10 bouts, including eight bonus-point victories. The Huskies faced top-ranked opponents at several weights, including Mitchell Mesenbrink at 174 pounds and Josh Barr at 197.

Bloomsburg has won 23 individual bouts through four dual meets, including 20 consecutive victories in its shutouts of Sacred Heart and Duke.

HUSKIES SHINE AT OHIO OPEN
Bloomsburg collected several strong individual performances at the Bob Del Rosa Ohio Open on Nov. 14, highlighted by three podium finishes. Coltan Jones led the way with a third-place finish at 125 pounds, while Tim Gray placed fourth at heavyweight and freshman Daniel Dacey finished fifth at 165 pounds. Dacey recorded three victories during the tournament, including a technical fall and a pin, and improved his season total to six wins. Gray added two victories at heavyweight, including a fall in 2:21, while Jones continued to gain valuable tournament experience in his first collegiate season. The performances provided additional competition for the Huskies' developing roster as Bloomsburg prepares for its upcoming dual at Navy and the C.J. Morgan Invitational at Army.

SCOUTING NAVY
Navy enters Friday's dual with a 2-2 overall record and 0-0 in the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association. The Midshipmen opened with a 43-0 victory over Duke on Nov. 7 before falling to No. 19 Rutgers, 24-12. Navy dropped a 24-12 decision at No. 15 NC State on Nov. 12 before rebounding with a 20-14 victory over Maryland on Nov. 16.

At 141 pounds, Caedyn Ricciardi is undefeated at 7-0 overall and 4-0 in duals, with victories over ranked opponents from NC State and Maryland. Ricciardi has accumulated 26 career wins.

At 174 pounds, Danny Wask is 7-0 overall, including 4-0 in duals. Wask owns 80 career victories and has registered three major decisions, a technical fall and a pin this season. His victories include an 8-3 decision over Rutgers' Ryan Ford and an 18-3 technical fall against NC State's Jason Kwaak.

Heavyweight Spencer Lanosga is 6-1 overall and 4-0 in duals, holding 27 career victories. Lanosga has scored bonus points in three of his four dual victories, including major decisions against NC State and Maryland.

Sean Garretson (133) enters at 4-2, Dylan Elmore (165) is 4-5, and Zyan Hall (197) is 3-4. Navy's lineup also features Jonathan Ley at 157 pounds, with 48 career victories. Ricciardi, Wask and Lanosga have combined for a 12-0 dual record.

C.J. MORGAN INVITATIONAL — A NEW NAME, A LASTING LEGACY
Bloomsburg will conclude its weekend Sunday at the inaugural C.J. Morgan Invitational, formerly known as the Black Knight Invitational, hosted by Army West Point at Christl Arena.

The tournament was renamed in October 2026 to honor former Army wrestler C.J. Morgan, a member of the West Point Class of 2020 who died from injuries sustained in a military vehicle accident. Morgan competed at 184 and 197 pounds for the Black Knights, compiling a 28-22 collegiate record, including 19 victories during his freshman season.

Army head coach Troy Nickerson announced the tournament's new name as a tribute to Morgan's contributions to the wrestling program and his lasting legacy at West Point.

The six-team field includes Army, Bloomsburg, Columbia, Hofstra, Penn State and VMI.

SCOUTING ARMY
Army enters its home tournament with a 2-0 dual record, having opened the season with a 25-12 victory at Wisconsin on Nov. 9 and defeated Air Force, 25-10, on Nov. 15.

The Black Knights, led by head coach Troy Nickerson, feature nationally ranked talent throughout the lineup. Heavyweight Brady Colbert headlines the group, while Joseph Uhorchuk (133), Braden Basile (141), Andrew Christie (165) and Gunner Filipowicz (174) have also appeared in national rankings.

Army's victory over Wisconsin included contributions from several newcomers, and the Black Knights followed with a strong performance against Air Force in their home opener.

HUSKIES SPOTLIGHT
JUSTIN JONES | 125 — Jones is 5-2 overall and 2-2 in duals, with two technical falls and a major decision. He won his Journeymen Collegiate Classic bracket, including a 2-1 second-tiebreaker victory over Navy's Nikos Filipos. Jones has 16 career victories.

BLOOMSBURG HUSKIES

SCOTTY JOHNSON | 141 — Johnson is 5-2 overall and 3-1 in duals following his victory at Penn State. The sophomore has recorded two major decisions this season and owns a 36-25 career record.

MICHAEL TURI | 157 — Turi is 3-1 overall and in duals. The freshman opened with a 2-1 decision against Wisconsin's Matthew Jens, pinned Sacred Heart's John Sheehy in 1:08 and defeated Duke's Michael Boulanger, 5-3.

ERIC ALDERFER | 157 — Alderfer is 5-2 overall after winning his Journeymen Collegiate Classic bracket with a perfect 3-0 record. His victories included a fall against Sacred Heart, a major decision against Virginia Tech and a 4-1 decision over Navy's Peyton Park. Alderfer owns 62 career victories.

MORGAN SCHWARZ | 165 — Schwarz is 3-1 overall and in duals after starting his collegiate career with three consecutive victories. His debut featured a 14-6 major decision over nationally ranked Cody Goebel of Wisconsin, followed by a technical fall against Sacred Heart and a decision against Duke.

MASON REBUCK | 285 — Rebuck is 2-2 in duals this season and has 36 career victories. The returning NCAA qualifier won both of his bouts at the Journeymen Duals. He finished 23-8 last season.

23 WINS AT THE JOURNEYMEN CLASSIC
The Huskies recorded 23 individual wins at the Journeymen Collegiate Classic on Nov. 8. Justin Jones and Eric Alderfer each went 3-0 and won their respective round-robin brackets.

Jones posted a 15-0 technical fall against Hofstra's Tommy Aiello, a 2-1 second-tiebreaker win over Navy's Nikos Filipos, and an 8-2 decision over Duke's Santi Ramirez. Alderfer pinned Sacred Heart's Owen Anderson in 2:28, defeated Virginia Tech's Mitchell Faglioni 12-1, and beat Navy's Peyton Park 4-1.

Mohamed Abdelhady finished second at 174 pounds, winning twice, including a 15-0 technical fall over NC State's Jason Kwaak.

RANKED WIN TO OPEN THE YEAR
Freshman Morgan Schwarz made an immediate impact in his collegiate debut, earning a 14-6 major decision over nationally ranked Cody Goebel of Wisconsin at 165 pounds on Nov. 1.

Schwarz followed with a 15-0 technical fall over Sacred Heart's Anthony Totta and a 7-0 decision over Duke's Charlie Lussier. He opened his collegiate career 3-0 before suffering his first defeat against Penn State on Nov. 12.

THE SERIES — BLOOMSBURG VS. NAVY
Bloomsburg and Navy renew their wrestling rivalry Friday in Annapolis. The Midshipmen compete in the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association, while Bloomsburg competes in the Mid-American Conference.

The teams have already faced each other in individual competition this season at the Journeymen Collegiate Classic, where Justin Jones defeated Nikos Filipos, Eric Alderfer defeated Peyton Park, and Jay Chase defeated Cole Householder.

STUTZMAN AT THE HELM
John Stutzman is in his third season since returning to Bloomsburg in 2024 and his 11th season overall leading the Huskies. His first eight seasons (2005-13) produced a 97-56-1 dual record, three NCAA Division I All-Americans, eight Eastern Wrestling League champions and 33 NCAA qualifiers.

In 2012-13, he guided Bloomsburg to a 17-3 record and the program's first outright EWL dual championship, with wins over nationally ranked Maryland, Pittsburgh and Edinboro. Stutzman earned EWL Coach of the Year honors three times (2007, 2010 and 2013).

Between Bloomsburg tenures, he coached Buffalo for 11 seasons and sent 25 wrestlers to the NCAA Championships.

WELCOME TO THE STAFF — GABLE STRICKLAND
Gable Strickland joined the Huskies as an assistant coach in July 2026 following a standout collegiate career at Lock Haven. A two-time Mid-American Conference champion at 133 pounds (2023 and 2024), Strickland appeared in three NCAA Division I Championships and earned more than 100 career victories.

He earned NWCA Scholar All-America honors during his graduate season and was named Lock Haven's 2023-24 Outbreak Athlete of the Year. The former Benton standout qualified for the PIAA four times and medaled three times at state.

Strickland joins volunteer assistants Max Good and Ricky Donald.

REBUCK RETURNS WITH NCAA EXPERIENCE
Mason Rebuck returns at heavyweight after breaking through to the NCAA Division I Championships in 2025-26. Rebuck finished 23-8 overall and 17-5 in duals last season, placed third at the MAC Championships, and earned an NCAA berth by defeating SIUE's Bryson Buhk 11-8 in the true-second-place match.

During the 2025-26 season, he recorded six falls, three technical falls, and two major decisions. Rebuck enters the Navy matchup with a 2-2 record this season and 36 career victories.

MAT TALK WITH STUTZMAN
The Huskies launched "Mat Talk with Stutzman" on November 5 at Turkey Hill Brewing Company, giving fans, alumni, and supporters a chance to connect with the coaching staff and hear program updates.

The inaugural event, sponsored by the Husky Elite Wrestling Club, featured a discussion of the team's early-season performance and the 2026-27 schedule. The two remaining Mat Talks will be January 7 and February 25 at 6:00 p.m.

John STUTZMAN

HEAD COACH
110-90 (199-197-1) • 11th Season
University of Buffalo '98

John Stutzman enters his third season back at the helm of the Bloomsburg wrestling program in 2026-27 and his 11th season overall leading the Huskies. A veteran of more than two decades of collegiate coaching experience, Stutzman returned to Bloomsburg in August 2024 following an 11-year tenure as head coach at his alma mater, the University at Buffalo.

Stutzman has compiled a 108-88-1 dual meet record across his first 10 completed seasons at Bloomsburg, ranking third in program history in career dual victories. His return to the Huskies has focused on rebuilding the program's competitive foundation, developing young talent and restoring Bloomsburg's tradition of success at the NCAA Division I level.

In his second season back in 2025-26, Stutzman guided Bloomsburg to a 10-18 dual meet record, a nine-win improvement from the previous season and the program's most dual victories since his 2012-13 team finished 17-3. The Huskies also recorded their highest finish in program history at the Mid-American Conference Championships, placing 10th with 39.5 points. Under Stutzman's direction, graduate student Jace Schafer (125 pounds) and junior Mason Rebuck (285 pounds) earned automatic bids to the NCAA Division I Championships, giving Bloomsburg multiple national qualifiers for the first time since 2020. Both wrestlers earned third-place finishes at the MAC Championships before securing their NCAA berths in true second-place matches. The season marked a significant step forward in Stutzman's rebuilding efforts, highlighted by improved dual meet results, three conference podium finishes and the program's return to the national championship stage.

During the 2024-25 campaign, Stutzman began his second stint leading the Huskies as Bloomsburg finished 1-14 in dual competition and 13th at the MAC Championships. William Morrow and Mason Rebuck led the team with eight individual victories apiece, while Tyler McCatharn added six wins.

Stutzman's return followed a successful 11-year tenure at Buffalo from 2013-24. During that span, he guided the Bulls to an 89-107 dual meet record and a 36-50 mark in MAC competition while sending 25 wrestlers to the NCAA Division I Championships.

One of the highlights of his tenure at Buffalo came during the 2018-19 season, when the Bulls finished second at the MAC Championships, their highest conference tournament finish in program history. Buffalo produced six NCAA qualifiers and two MAC individual champions, Troy Keller and Brett Perry, as Stutzman earned MAC Coach of the Year honors.

In 2021-22, Stutzman guided Buffalo to a 12-6 dual record, including a 7-2 mark in MAC competition, the program's best conference dual record since joining the league. The Bulls placed fourth at the MAC Championships, had eight wrestlers earn podium finishes and qualified three competitors for the NCAA Championships.

Before taking over at Buffalo, Stutzman established himself as one of the most successful coaches in Bloomsburg wrestling history during his first tenure from 2005-13. In eight seasons, he compiled a 97-56-1 dual record and a 27-20 mark in Eastern Wrestling League competition. His teams recorded double-digit dual victories in six seasons and consistently competed among the top programs in the EWL and Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference.

During that eight-year stretch, Stutzman coached three NCAA Division I All-Americans, eight EWL champions, 76 EWL place winners and 33 NCAA Division I national qualifiers. He earned EWL Coach of the Year honors three times, in 2007, 2010 and 2013.

The 2012-13 season represented one of the program's finest campaigns under Stutzman's direction. Bloomsburg finished 17-3, matching the school record for dual victories, and captured the first outright EWL dual meet championship in program history with an undefeated 5-0 conference record. The Huskies defeated nationally ranked Maryland, Pittsburgh and Edinboro and climbed to No. 15 in the National Wrestling Coaches Association rankings.

Bloomsburg finished third at the EWL Championships that season, crowned two individual conference champions and qualified six wrestlers for the NCAA Championships. Stutzman earned his third EWL Coach of the Year award following the historic campaign.

In 2011-12, Stutzman led Bloomsburg to a 16-7 record and a runner-up finish at the PSAC Championships. The Huskies also qualified four wrestlers for the NCAA Championships.

His early success included developing multiple All-Americans, highlighted by Matt Moley, who earned consecutive All-America honors in 2008 and 2009. Moley became the first Bloomsburg wrestler since the 1988-89 seasons to earn All-America recognition in consecutive years. Heavyweight Mike Spaid also earned All-America honors in 2007, becoming the program's first All-American since 1993.

Before his first appointment as Bloomsburg's head coach, Stutzman spent seven seasons as a Division I assistant coach, working at Buffalo, Northern Illinois and Bloomsburg. During that period, he helped develop six conference champions, 22 NCAA Division I qualifiers and two All-Americans.

A 1998 graduate of Buffalo, Stutzman enjoyed an outstanding collegiate wrestling career, compiling a 95-27 record over three seasons. He finished his career as the Bulls' all-time leader in victories and posted a 35-4 record during the 1996-97 season. He was also a three-time East Coast Wrestling Association place winner.

Beyond the collegiate ranks, Stutzman has extensive experience with USA Wrestling and international freestyle competition. He has coached at multiple U.S. Olympic Team Trials and Senior World Team Trials and served in several international coaching assignments, including the University World Team, FILA Junior World Championships and other international tournaments.

A native of New Castle, Delaware, Stutzman and his wife, Annette, have three children, daughtsrs Alexa Bryanna, Torin Valera and Paxton.
