About Bloomsburg

Bloomsburg University, a member of Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education, is a four-year coeducational public university founded in 1839. Through the stages of its development from a normal school to a teachers college to a multipurpose state college and finally to a university in 1983, the institution has retained its emphasis on liberal arts and career education.

Bloomsburg is recognized as one of the best 100 public universities in the United States, and excellence, ranging from its 19 National Championships

A Few Facts About Bloomsburg...

Enrollment— Total enrollment is over 9,400, with an average incoming SAT of 1070 and class rank in the upper 25 percent; Bloomsburg admits one in seven applicants and has a four-year retention rate significantly higher than the national average. About 60 percent are women and 10 percent are non-traditional. About 90 percent of Bloomsburg graduates are quickly placed in their chosen fields.

Faculty— With approximately 1,000 employees, Bloomsburg University has 383 full-time faculty, 70 percent of whom hold doctoral degrees and 72 percent of whom are tenured. The staff is organized into four divisions: Academic Affairs, Administration, Student Life and University Advancement. Governance is through the State System of Higher Education's Board of Governors and through the university's Council of Trustees.

Degrees— Bloomsburg University offers 63 baccalaureate degrees, 18 master's degrees and a joint doctoral degree in elementary education in cooperation with Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Financial Aid— About 70 percent of all students receive some form of financial aid; average amount of aid is $10,026 per year.

Cost—About $5,358 per year for Pennsylvania residents tuition, fees, typical room and meal plans, $13,396 for non-residents.

School Colors, Mascot— The school colors, originally "lemon and garnet," have been maroon and gold since the 1920s. In the early 1930s, the Husky became the school mascot when a dog owned by a faculty member accompanied Adm. Richard E. Byrd on an expedition to the South Pole.

to its international reputation in a number of its academic programs, is an attitude found throughout the faculty and staff.

About 90 percent of Bloomsburg's students come from throughout Pennsylvania, creating a diverse mix of cultures and ideas. It's a place where friendships that last a lifetime begin. And it's a busy place — with more than 160 student organizations and activities, NCAA Division I wrestling and II athletic programs and a popular recreation center.

The university's Division of Continuing and Distance Education serves students through non-degree credit courses, noncredit mini-courses, off-campus classes, credit for life experience and distance learning courses on public television.

The town of Bloomsburg, located in the Susquehanna River Valley, has a population of about 12,000 people. The central business district is just three blocks southwest of campus, and includes more than 80 retail stores, restaurants, and the Bloomsburg Fair in September. More stores, restaurants and theaters can be found along nearby Route 11 and at the Columbia Mall, northwest of town.

The university is within a one-hour drive from such cities as Hazleton, Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton; 1.5 hours from Harrisburg; 2.5 hours from Philadelphia; 3 hours from New York City and Baltimore; and four hours from Pittsburgh and Washington, DC.

Coaching Staff

Head Coach John Stutzman

John Stutzman begins his seventh season as head coach of the Bloomsburg University wrestling team in 2011-12.

Stutzman has guided the Huskies to a record of 64-46-1 in his six years and has coached three NCAA Division I All-Americans, six Eastern Wrestling League (EWL) champions, 56 EWL placewinners and 23 NCAA Division I national qualifiers.

Twice Stutzman has earned the EWL Coach of the Year honor as well as producing the 2007 EWL and PSAC Freshman of the Year, the 2009 EWL Championship's Outstanding Wrestler and the 2011 PSAC Freshman of the Year.

A year ago Stutzman led the Huskies to a record of 14-6 and finished third at the EWL Championships. The 14 wins were the most for the program since the 1990-91 season and included wins over Penn, North Carolina State, Northern Iowa and Buffalo. At the EWL championships Stutzman led the Huskies to a third place finish, while qualifying two wrestlers for the NCAA championships, including EWL-champion Mike Dessino. Stutzman was honored by his fellow coaches at the end of the season by being named the EWL Coach of the Year.

In 2009-10 Stutzman led the Huskies to a record of 10-8, which included an appearance at the NWCA National Duals for the first time in 20 years.

During the 2008-09 season Bloomsburg was third at the EWL championships and had the tournament's Outstanding Wrestler in Matt Moley. At the NCAA championships Moley earned All-American honors for the second straight year, the first time since the 1988-89 season that a BU wrestler was All-American in consecutive seasons.

In 2007-08 Stutzman coached three wrestlers to the NCAA Championships with Matt Moley picking up All-American honors at 157 pounds.

During the 2006-07 season Stutzman earned EWL Coach of the Year honors helping Matt Moley earn the EWL and PSAC Rookie of the Year award and heavyweight Mike Spaid becoming the school's first All-American since the 1993 season.

Prior to becoming Bloomsburg University's head wrestling coach, he was an assistant coach for seven years at the Division I level. During those seven seasons, Stutzman worked at three very successful universities: the University at Buffalo, Northern Illinois University and Bloomsburg. Throughout that time, he assisted in the development and maturation of six conference champions, 22 Division I NCAA qualifiers, and two Division I All-Americans. He has recruited six classes that have been ranked in the top 25 nationally.

In addition to his college coaching duties, Stutzman has coached with the New York Athletic Club at the 2004 and 2008 USA Olympic Freestyle Trials, as well as the 2006, 2007, 2009, 2010 and 2011 Senior World Team Trials where he has coached Six World Team Trials participants, two Olympic Team Trials participants, and one USA National Team Member. He was also an assistant wrestling coach for the 2009 NWCA All-American tour in Seoul, South Korea.

Stutzman is also a member of the USA Wrestling coaching staff since 2009. He has served as the head coach of the University World Team in Warsaw, Poland; the Ziolkowski International in Spala, Poland; the Stephen Sargsyan International in Armenia; the 2011 Fila Junior World Championships; the Dimtry Korkin International in Yakutsk, Russia and the Ramzan Kadirov Cup in Chechnya, Russia. He also served as an assistant wrestling coach for Team USA for the University Team Championships in Poland in 2009.

During the 2004-05 season, he helped coach six Bloomsburg NCAA qualifiers and helped lead the team to a 10-win season. The Huskies won their first Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Championship since 1990, recording the school's 14th title in school history. Bloomsburg had two PSAC Championships in 2005, and also three EWL title-winners.

At Northern Illinois from 2000-2002, Stutzman coached All-American Scott Owen as well as helping lead the squad to a second-place finish at the Mid-American Conference Championships. From 1998-2000, Stutzman served as the assistant coach at Buffalo helping coach the school's first Mid-American Conference champion. Buffalo qualified six wrestlers to the NCAA Championships in those three seasons and compiled a 19-10-2 record.

A 1998 graduate of the University of Buffalo, Stutzman was 95-27 in a three-year career for the Bulls and left as the school's all-time leader in career wins. His best year for the Bulls was the 1996-97 season when he posted a mark of 35-4. He was a three-time East Coast Wrestling Association place winner and a two-time alternate for the Division

Assistant Coach Scott Owen

Scott Owen begins his fourth season as the head assistant wrestling coach at Bloomsburg. In his three years at Bloomsburg, Owen has helped coach nine NCAA qualifiers and one All-American while also directing recruiting operations. His classes have included eight nationally ranked wrestlers, two top-100 recruits and a combined 12 state championships.

Owen came to Bloomsburg from the United States Naval Academy where he spent three seasons as an assistant with the Midship men, helping send 16 wrestlers to the NCAA Championships while also helping produce four All-Americans and two top-20 finishes at the NCAA Championships. He also led recruiting efforts for the Navy, bringing in two consecutive top-25 nationally ranked classes in 2007 and 2008.

Prior to his time at Navy, Owen worked at his alma mater Northern Illinois in DeKalb, Ill., where he helped lead the Huskies to national recognition on the mats. He served as a volunteer and assistant coach at the MAC school from 2004-05, where he helped coach seven NCAA Championship qualifiers and one NCAA Finalist.

As a member of the New York Athletic Club, Owen was a three-time Freestyle World Team Trials qualifier, a US Open place winner and was ranked as high as third on the Olympic ladder at 74 kilograms. He placed in numerous international tournaments including a fifth-place showing at the 2007 Ivan Yarygin International held in Krasnoyarsk, Russia, considered one of the toughest tournaments in the world. He also won the Sunkist International Open earlier that season.

As a collegiate wrestler at Northern Illinois, Owen was a four-time NCAA qualifier and two-time All-American, placing fifth at 157 pounds in 2002 and 2003. He was ranked as high as #1 in the country during the 2002-03 season and was a three-time Mid-American Conference champion. He ended his career as the all-time wins leader in Northern Illinois history and is just one of three Northern Illinois wrestlers to finish his career as a two-time All-American.

Before wrestling at Northern Illinois, Owen was a three-time New Mexico state champion and was a two-time member of the ASICS All-American Team in 1996 and 1997.

He also excelled in the classroom, where he graduated cum laude from NIU with a 3.63 GPA in biological sciences with an emphasis in pre-med and a minor in chemistry. He was a two-time member of the NWCA First-team Academic All-America Team and was named to the Verizon / CoSIDA Academic All-America Second Team in 2002. In December of 2007 he earned his master's degree in sport management from Northern Illinois.

Owen, his wife Bren and son Lane reside in Bloomsburg.

Brian Tucker • Strength Coach

Graduate Assistant Coach Brian Tucker was a four-year varsity starter for the Dallastown Area High School Wildcats in York County Pennsylvania and wrestled for two years at The Ohio State University before transferring over to the University of Pittsburgh, where he graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Health and Physical Activity.

Tucker completed an internship as a strength and conditioning coach for the Pittsburgh Pirates; he is a Certified Personal Trainer with the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM) and a Corrective Exercise Specialist.

Tucker has worked as a Strength Coach with the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center for the past four years where he has trained youth, high school, collegiate and professional athletes, including members of the National Hockey League's Pittsburgh Penguins, and several National Football League teams, such as the Pittsburgh Steelers and Baltimore Ravens.

Tucker is currently enrolled in the graduate studies program at Bloomsburg University to obtain his Master's Degree in Exercise Science.

His duties with the Bloomsburg wrestling team include specialization as a strength coach and working with the team's upper weight classes.

While in Pittsburgh, Tucker also spent time recruiting for Penn State-New Kensington and coaching with the Iron Horse Wrestling Club. There, he coached alongside Jeff Breese and Bryan Stout where he helped club wrestlers such as 2010 145 lb. PIAA AA State Champion Nick Carr and PIAA AAA fifth-place medalist Tyler Wilps along with numerous other state qualifiers and junior state qualifiers.

MarcAntoni Macias • Volunteer Assistant

MarcAntoni Macias begins his second year at Bloomsburg and will work with the middle weights for the Huskies along with performing administrative duties.

Macias wrestled collegiately for Campbellsville University in Campbellsville, Ky., from 2005 to 2008. He graduated with a bachelors of science degree in Physical Education and minor in Coaching. Macias was part of the first class to graduate from Head Coach Frank James' program which started at Campbellsville at 2004. While wrestling at CU, he qualified for the NAIA National Tournament in 2007 and 2008 at 141 and 133 lbs, respectively.

After graduation in 2008, Macias became an assistant wrestling coach for the reinstated Colorado State University-Pueblo team. While there, he was responsible for development of the light weights along with the academic support of the team.

In 2009, Macias joined the staff at the University of Maryland, where he was an administrative assistant. There, he assisted with daily operations of summer camps, assisted with recruiting by researching prospective student athletes, and prepared recruiting paperwork for distribution. His daily administrative responsibilities included video production, editing, and weekly highlight video creation along with providing support for varsity and club program fundraising.

While at Maryland, he served as an assistant wrestling coach with the Terrapins Wrestling Club, where he planned and conducted practices and clinics, provided individualized coaching, and implemented skill development programs for wrestlers of all ages and skill levels.

Macias, who hails from Alexandria, Va., has been a long time club coach at Gunston Wrestling Club from 2004-2011.

Macias resides in Bloomsburg. He will also continue his wrestling career at the senior level in freestyle.

His reputation around the country and world as head coach is growing each year, but yet Bloomsburg University head coach John Stutzman never stops working. If you see him after a practice, he is more than likely drenched in sweat. If you see him at a match, he is yelling instructions to his wrestlers. He knows how hard it is to be successful in the sport and knows that he has the guys who have what it takes to succeed at the Division One level of wrestling. That's why the Huskies are a program gaining more respect year after year and why Stutzman earned EWL coach of the Year honors in 2010-11.

"We have a very good group of wrestlers who are working hard," said Stutzman. "We won 14 matches a year ago and wrestled every one of our opponents hard. That's only because we work hard day in and day out to get better."

The Huskies lineup will be as deep and talented as he has been able to put out on the mat since his taking over as head coach seven years ago. So you've got to believe him and when he talks. "We have a very talented lineup this year led by some very good veterans in Mike Dessino, Frank Hickman and Zac Walsh," said Stutzman. "They have worked extremely hard to become very good wrestlers. We will need them to step up and lead us against one of the tougher schedules in the country and also teach our younger guys what it takes to be successful at this level."

WEIGHT-BY-WEIGHT

The Huskies have a very good one in Sean Boylan returning at this weight class. Boylan was third at EWL's, won the PSAC Rookie of the Year award and was named to the Amateur Wrestling News All-Rookie team, while winning 20 matches. Behind Boylan the Huskies will look to Elliot Zackoski or Dereck Enders.

133

Nick Wilcox is a returning starter for the Huskies at this weight. A year ago Wilcox finished sixth at the EWL championships, won a PSAC title and in the off-season was a FILA Junior Freestyle All-American. Behind Wilcox will be two good ones in Jeremiah Biddle, named one of the team's captains, and Craig Barker giving the Huskies great depth.

141

Last year's starter at this weight Derek Shingara will be taking a red-shirt year. But the Huskies have two solid guys ready to step in. Kurtis Becker is a transfer from Liberty University with Matt Rappo, a true freshman who was fourth in the PIAA championships last year. The duo will likely split time at the weight. Dan Gaylord and Matt Hicks will also compete for mat time at this weight.

149

This is another weight class where the Huskies have depth. Josh Roosa battled through some injuries last year and was fifth at the EWL Championships. Competing with Roosa for time will be Bryce Busler, who was a runner-up at the University National Freestyle Championships. Both are wrestling well and will be in the lineup.

157

Frank Hickman, one of the Huskies captains, will lead this weight class. A year ago Hickman turned in a great season finishing second in the EWL, took third at the PSAC championships, was an NCAA qualifier where he picked up two wins and finished with 27 wins on the season. He starts the pre-season ranked in the top 20 of several polls. Behind Hickman will be sophomore Mike Testen (Sayre/Athens).

165

This will be a strong weight class for the Huskies led by Chris Smith, Josh Veltre and Kevin Hartnett. Smith came on strong for the Huskies last season posting 13 wins, while Veltre was fifth at EWL's, second at PSAC's and had a couple of wins over ranked opponents. Behind those is Hartnett who won 27 matches wrestling unattached.

174

Mike Dessino had one of those years that any coach can be proud of. Quietly he put together a 25-win season highlighted by winning both the EWL and PSAC titles at his weight class earning his first trip to the NCAA championships where he won one match. He later went on to earn All-American honors at the University Nationals Free Style championships. This season Dessino has been named a captain and will be called upon to be a leader. Behind Dessino is Sam Shirey who won 11 matches as a red-shirt last year and in someone who has made leaps and bounds as a wrestler, while Garret Vandemark adds depth.

184

Losing Nate Graham to graduation was a big loss for the Huskies, but a couple of guys will be battling to fill those shoes. Red-shirt freshman Nate Roonan and true freshman Mike Mirra will both see time. Roonan has gotten better over the off-season, while Mirra posted a high school record of 113-35 with 46 falls and was a two-time Class "AAA" state qualifier. Also look for Mike Labell and Luke Deluise to provide depth.

197

The Huskies have a good one leading the way at this weight class. Richard Perry was fifth at EWL's last year as a red-shirt freshman winning 14 matches, including victories over nationally ranked John Hall of Boston University and Alex Thomas of Clarion. Perry also spent part of the summer working out at the Olympic Training Center. When Perry is not wrestling look for Nate Roonan to bump up to this weight class.

Zac Walsh leads the way for the Huskies at 285 and is coming off a very good season in which he won 19 matches. Walsh has worked extremely hard and has gotten quicker and stronger each year and is ready to be a leader for the team after being named captain. For the first time Walsh will have a training partner as Justin Grant transfers to Bloomsburg from Kutztown.

"The guys have been working very hard all year round," said Stutzman. "They have seen that hard works pays off and they want even more. If we wrestle to our capabilities we can certainly have a few EWL champions and compete for All-American honors at NCAA's."

*- Bloomsburg University Hall of Famers

The National Wrestling Hall of Fame & Museum held its annual induction ceremony on May 31, 2008 with former Bloomsburg University great Ricky Bonomo '92 one of the four inductees for 2008.

Bonomo was the greatest wrestler in the history of Bloomsburg University. For three straight years 1985-87, Bonomo won all of the major events on the schedule, capturing the NCAA Div. I title, along with the Eastern Wrestling League EWL title and the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference PSAC title at 118 pounds. He was named the EWL and PSAC Wrestler of the Year all three of those seasons. Ricky's career record was a stellar 116-12-3. Ricky and his brother Rocky were the first twins to win Pennsylvania state titles side-by-side in 36 years when they won Class AA titles for Lake Lehman High in 1981, wrestling for the legendary Floyd "Shorty" Hitchcock. Rocky was also an All-American for Bloomsburg, making the Bonomo brothers the most feared lightweight tandem in college wrestling at the time.

Joining Bonomo in the 2008 inductee class were Mike Houck of Victoria, Minn., Wayne Martin of Tulsa, Okla. and Bobby Weaver of Easton, Pa.

Ricky Bonomo in action as a member of the Huskies

Eastern Wrestling League

Since the Eastern Wrestling League was formed in 1976, Bloomsburg has enjoyed much success, both as a team and individually. The Huskies won the team championship in 1981 and 1993, and individually, Bloomsburg wrestlers have compiled 35 titles.

In addition to Bloomsburg, the league includes Clarion, Cleveland State, Edinboro, Lock Haven, Pittsburgh and West Virginia.

Bloomsburg wrestlers hold three of the four fastest EWL tournament fall times. Heavyweight Mel Sharp holds the record with an 18-second pin in 1979, while Al McCollum, a 1982 title-winner, recorded a 36-second fall in 1981. In 1977, Leszek Radon pinned an opponent in 39 seconds.

The Nelson Field House, located on Bloomsburg University's upper campus, serves as home for most of the university's indoor athletic events.

The facility, constructed in 1971, recently underwent a $13.4 million dollar facelift. Among the renovations to the field house are a new bleacher system for the main gym area, a new scoreboard, a new wrestling room on the lower level of the facility, a new and expanded press box, dedicated locker rooms for each sport, including an expanded football locker room, improved office space and additional storage space. In addition the pool area has been completely renovated with improved lighting, new bleachers, new starting blocks, improved timing system and record board.

The project also provided for enhancements to both the upper and lower entrances that will showcase the awards the teams have won over the last three decades. The project was completed in August of 2009.
